*The Traveler's Gift: Seven Decisions that Determine Personal Success – Recap*ⁱ

Although the story of David Ponder's time traveling is a work of fiction, the lessons he learns along the way and the seven decisions the historical figures teach him are immediately applicable to real life.

To recap, here are the seven decisions that determine personal success:

1. The buck stops here. I am responsible for my past and my future.
2. I will seek wisdom. I will be a servant to others.
3. I am a person of action. I seize this moment. I choose now.
4. I have a decided heart. My destiny is assured.
5. Today I will choose to be happy. I am the possessor of a grateful spirit.
6. I will greet this day with a forgiving spirit. I will forgive myself.
7. I will persist without exception. I am a person of great faith.

You are the only person responsible for your past, present, and future. If you can commit these decisions to memory and use them as inspiration in your own life or to inspire others, your future could be brighter than it is today. Believe in yourself and the power of your choices.

Quote:

"There comes a time in every person's life when a decision is required. And that decision, should you make it, will have a far-reaching effect on generations yet unborn. There is a thin thread that weaves only from you to hundreds of thousands of lives. Your example, your actions, and yes, even one decision can literally change the world."
